Dear Perry Preschool volunteer,

congratulations on beginning your senior year in Perry Service Learning. Volunteering this year has taught me a lot and I'm very happy I had the opportunity to do so.

At the preschool, you can expect hands-on work and opportunities to influence and make an impact on a lot of children. To be successful in serving here, you need to develop communication and patience skills.

It is so rewarding serving here because it's obvious that my presence is appreciated by both the teachers and the students. The hardest part of volunteering here is telling the preschoolers that something they said is wrong, because they show so much pride in answering questions that I feel bad correcting them.

My supervisors, Mrs. Farrer and Mrs. Restly are awesome and if you get assigned to their classroom, you should not feel intimidated and don't be awkward because they like to see you get involved right away.

Lastly, you should be confident when beginning serving and you will see appreciation glowing off of the preschoolers' faces which is a reward.

itself. volunteering at the Perry Preschool has changed
my life and perspective. I hope as you serve here, you are impacted as much as I was. I wish you the best of luck in your senior year and appreciate this time while it is still there.

Sincerely,
Jillian Meyer
