

SERVICE LEARNING 101 EXAM REVIEW

The much anticipated first exam in PSL will take place on Friday. This study guide is being provided in hopes that the exam will catapult your PSL grade to an A+. However, failure to review the recommended notes and documents may result in such an embarrassingly low score that you'll rush to the guidance office to drop the class rather than show your face in PSL again. Avoid this sad fate. Use this opportunity to prove to your teachers and classmates that you are prepared to represent PSL, PHS, and the community of Perry in whatever service endeavors you participate in this year.

The exam will consist of 60 questions:

- 14 questions assessing your knowledge of key terms
- 6 questions assessing your knowledge of the PSL survival guide
- 5 questions assessing your knowledge of professional communication guidelines
- 5 questions assessing your knowledge of the Global Goals
- 7 questions assessing your knowledge of “Service Learning: A Balanced Approach to Education”
- 10 questions assessing your knowledge of appropriate/inappropriate volunteer behaviors
- 3 questions assessing your knowledge of the InnerView service reflection rubric
- 10 questions assessing your knowledge of professional dress expectations

Ground rules:

- You may use your notebook.
- You may NOT use someone else’s notes.
- You may NOT use your cell phone.
- You may NOT use your Chromebook/laptop.
